

CITY WINS REDISTRICTING BATTLE

Highest State Court Throws Out Appeal

Victory Decisive Unless Hass Goes To U.S. Tribunal

Another and possibly final victory has been won by the City of Palm Springs in regard to its redistricting battle in the law suit filed by Herbert Hass, chairman of the Committee for Equal Representation.

The State Supreme Court declined to hear an appeal filed by Attorney Leonard Bock from an Appellate Court decision which denied the redistricting proposition's argument that the three-fourths requirement in an election vote on redistricting was unconstitutional.

In the election, redistricting passed by a simple majority only. The city, through City Attorney Jerry Bunker, maintained that it would be a fraud upon the voters if any other interpretation than the three-fourths ruling was given to the state law, and was supported by all courts which heard the case.

Bock and Hass today said the matter might be carried to the U.S. Supreme Court. This will be determined shortly after the holidays, according to Hass.

Conferences will be held to determine whether further court action should be taken in conjunction with the circulating of a new petition, or whether the committee will merely circulate another petition asking for a second redistricting election.

Hass, in commenting on the decision, said: "A temporary roadblock has been placed in the path of democracy and progress in Palm Springs. For almost 20 years the councilmanic districts have remained unchanged until now a majority of our councilmen represent a mere 20 percent of the voters."

Pointing out that the majority of the people demonstrated that they desired redistricting, he added, "The desire for equal representation is much too strong to take defeat by legal maneuvers as final. Fortunately periodic councilmanic elections and the right of petition are two instruments of majority expression."

"Those of us who are interested in representative government and equal representation shall continue to fight against this gross injustice whereby a small group can control a city by virtually disenfranchising a majority of the citizens by controlling the machinery of government and refusing to let the democratic process work."

Red Hungary Begins Emptying Political Jails

LONDON — Communist Hungary is quietly releasing a flood of political prisoners jailed by the Red regime at the height of Josef Stalin's "monstrous excesses," reports reaching London said today.

Release of the political prisoners coincided with Hungary's admission Thursday that the late Foreign Minister Laszlo Rajk and four of his cohorts were "innocently" executed on false charges of treason and Titoism in 1949.

There was immediate speculation that Czechoslovakia may follow by restoring the liquidated party chief Rudolf Slansky to good party standing. The charges against Slansky were much the same as those against Rajk.

Both were tried in big "show trials" along the lines of Moscow's purge trials of the 1930s. Nine of Slansky's closest followers died with him on the gallows of Prague's Pankrac Prison.

A DESERT FISH STORY
On the Colorado River a mile and a half above Blythe, California, Tommy Kinders an old-timer has a camp and at his camp most of the record fish catches during the last 20 years have been made.

Last summer a young married couple drove across the river from Parker, Arizona with their trailer just in time for the baby to be born in California.

The only scales the father could obtain on which to weigh the child was the one with which Tommy Kinders had weighed all the big fish caught in the last 20 years.

The baby tipped the scales at thirty-five pounds.

Thousands Trudge Jerusalem Road Where Christ Carried His Cross

JERUSALEM — Thousands of Christians from the East and West trudged in a solemn procession today along the route on which Christ carried his cross to Calvary.

The pilgrims, many carrying heavy wooden crosses, commemorated Good Friday by making their way through the narrow, rough-paved Via Dolorosa in the old city. They started out in the early morning darkness at the first station, the Praetorium where Christ was sentenced by Pontius Pilate to be crucified.

At the ninth station, where Christ fell for the third time, the throng stopped while the Roman Catholic patriarch of Jerusalem, Msgr. Alverto Gori, celebrated a sunrise mass.

The pilgrims, marked off in groups speaking common languages, knelt at each of the 14 Stations of the Cross marked by tablets in the old city's gray walls.

The decision was contrary to the recommendation of City Attorney Merrill Brown, who told council that the city must legally drop proceedings since the law states that if property owners representing more than 50 per cent of land to be annexed file protests the issue falls automatically.

Property owners claiming to represent more than 94 per cent of the valuation protested the action at the public hearing held earlier this month.

The matter was continued till April 12, two days after the councilmanic election, at the suggestion of councilman Elmer Bain, who proposed that council "see it through" to the finish.

Though the law requires a majority protest cancel annexation proceedings, Bain's grounds for continuing investigation till after the election date, April 10, was that no positive valuation of land involved is available.

Both of the previously mentioned properties were under the advisory direction of Mike Jekyll, and his firm of Associated Realtors has been appointed exclusive agents for the Palm Canyon Drive Professional Building. Leasing is now underway, with several leases already having been signed.

Construction will be completed and ready for occupancy next fall.

Jobless Office Will Open in Village April 12

An itinerant division of the California State Employment Service will open in the Village April 12, and remain open each Thursday as long as the need warrants, Jasper Bonham, manager of the Indio CSES office, said today.

The employer service and benefit claims agency will be in the council chambers of the city of Indio, near the airport.

Arrangements and deposits have been made with the Bank of America to handle all checks issued claimants at the Palm Springs division.

Bonham said residents of Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City, possibly Rancho Mirage, and areas surrounding the Village will be served.

It will stay in operation till employment picks up again next season, probably in November. He said the Coachella Valley situation is unique in Southern California. Where other areas, such as Riverside and San Bernardino, have increased their population in the past year, their unemployment benefit payment ratio has increased with them.

But in this immediate area, the population has similarly increased, but the benefit payment claims have decreased by more than half. Last March, 2700 checks, for about 900 persons, were issued; this month, about 1100 checks, for 400 persons, will go through his office.

Campaign for the office was first started by the Palm Springs Area Democratic Club.

They fear other cases have gone unreported and said a carrier might contaminate more victims unless the source is tracked down.

$750,000 New Building Planned Here

Professional Men's Center Is Called 'Finest Outside LA'

(See Photo Page 3)

Planned development of a $750,000 professional building located between Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue and fronting on each major street, was announced today by Herman M. Kolodkin, Beverly Hills real estate investor and financier, and Burton Halpern, who heads the Burton Hardware Company of Los Angeles.

Need for such a building here was shown by a survey, according to the two men, and plans call for the "finest such structure outside of the Los Angeles area."

It will be a two-story, patio-type development. The six stores and offices will be located in the 24,000 square feet of space designed to function as a professional building.

The building will be completely refrigerated and heated, with forced draft ventilation. There will be special plumbing and wiring, and an elevator.

A special feature will be a loading area inside the building to which people may drive in their cars.

Parking will be available for 100 cars, with access from both Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue.

The property consists of one and a quarter acres, 150 feet south of Tamarisk Road, and fronts 125 feet on Palm Canyon Drive and 210 feet on Indian Avenue. The building will be known as the Palm Canyon Drive Professional Building.

Howard Lapham, who designed George and Ruth Simon's Skylark, and the Desert Star Hotel of Lyons, Yordani and Michaelides, will be the designer.

Both of the previously mentioned properties were under the advisory direction of Mike Jekyll, and his firm of Associated Realtors has been appointed exclusive agents for the Palm Canyon Drive Professional Building. Leasing is now underway, with several leases already having been signed.

Construction will be completed and ready for occupancy next fall.

Stalin Friends Stage March on Soviet Capital

NEW YORK — Thousands of Russian Georgians, angered by the defection of Stalin, marched on the capital government headquarters at Tiflis during a three-day demonstration early this month, according to a report received by the National Broadcasting Company.

NBC's Helsinki correspondent, Paul Sjoebom, received the report from Finnish consul pianist Tapio Valsta who was in Tiflis for a concert when the news of Communist party chairman Krushchev's attack on Stalin's memory reached here.

Sjoebom quoted Valsta as saying: "These demonstrations lasted night and day for three days, but police kept out of it. I saw no soldiers around either."

Sleuths Hunt Midwest Typhoid Germ in Month-Long Medical Who-Dunnit

CHICAGO — Sleuths who work with test tubes instead of warrants have trailed a typhoid germ source in the Midwest for more than a month and may be near the end of their chase, it was disclosed today.

They are physicians of the U.S. Public Health Service, hot after the cause of a rare and baffling outbreak of typhoid fever which resulted in 28 verified cases of the once-dread disease in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa since the Christmas season.

They fear other cases have gone unreported and said a carrier might contaminate more victims unless the source is tracked down.

26 Police Aides Form Data Unit

Intelligence Plan Approved At 'Frisco Meeting

SAN FRANCISCO — Law enforcement officers of 26 western and midwestern cities have set up a super police intelligence network to keep track of the movement and activities of known and suspected criminals.

The organization will be known as the Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit. Its headquarters will be in the Sacramento offices of the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

San Francisco Police Chief Frank Ahern will serve as president of the agency. He said the new organization "will do much to improve the detection, prosecution, suppression and prevention of local crime."

Each city taking part in the agency will share in its cost. Later, other cities will be asked to join.

California cities represented at yesterday's meeting included San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland, San Diego, San Mateo, Stockton, Sacramento, Santa Rosa, San Jose, Palm Springs, San Rafael, and the counties of Riverside and Alameda.

Out-of-state delegates included law officers from Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo.; Denver, Phoenix, Seattle, Portland, Reno, and Las Vegas.

FBI Takes 'Most Wanted' Man in Memphis Raid

MEMPHIS — Notorious Nick The Greek Montos, only criminal ever to make the FBI's "10 most wanted" list twice, and escaped convict Robert Lloyd Jones were surprised by FBI agents at a motel early today and taken without a shot being fired.

FBI agents poured tear gas into the sleeping fugitives' room and forced them to come out with their hands up despite the fact they had a small arsenal with them.

Their arrest came only six days after the FBI announced that Montos was considered as a suspect in last Saturday's $89,000 bank robbery at Tampa, Fla., Montos' home town.

Montos, 38, an expert safe cracker and burglar, and Jones, 30, a convicted murderer, had been fugitives since they used a hacksaw to cut their way to freedom from Mississippi's Parchman State Prison Jan. 10, 1955. That was the fifth escape for Montos.

Yuba City Flood Leaders Rapped

YUBA CITY — The Sutter County Grand Jury has issued a report criticizing city and county officials for an "appalling lack of leadership" during the Christmas flood in which 38 lives were lost.

... had the responsible local authorities fully utilized the information available to them ... to evacuate the community the loss of life would have been greatly minimized and perhaps entirely avoided," a 50-page report said.

Hatchet Slayer Found Sane

BAKERSFIELD — Accused hatchet slayer Donald Wyciskala, 22, Bismarck, N. D., has been declared sane by two Bakersfield psychiatrists.

Drs. Louis Nash and F. H. Garrett submitted their findings yesterday to Superior Judge Robert A. Lambert who is expected to order Wyciskala to go on trial Wednesday for the slaying of Mr. and Mrs. James Askeew, Seattle.

Wyciskala had pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to a double murder charge in the death of the couple Feb. 5 near McFarland, Calif.

He was arrested a few days later in New Orleans and admitted the slayings because Askeew had "nagged" him about his driving while they were en route to Los Angeles.

Eisenhower Name No Joking Matter

WEST NEW YORK, N. J. — John Miller found out that the name Eisenhower is not to be taken lightly, even when it belongs to someone other than the President.

Miller said Thursday he met his friend Henry Eisenhower, 67, in a tavern March 3.

"Hello Ike," Miller said. "I hear you're running again."

Miller said Eisenhower beat him so badly he had to be taken to a Weehawken hospital for treatment.

Total Doubles Last Year at This Time

New City Hall, New School Help Boost Figure

Breaking all previous records in the history of Palm Springs, the building department today recorded a total of $2,319,000 worth of building permits issued during the month of March, according to building inspector Jack Sanders.

Building during the first three months of 1956 has doubled last year's total for the same period of time, with 1955 recording $2,197,675. The total valuation of building permits this year is $4,379,650.

Two permits, which helped to push the total during March to the record high was the new city hall at $317,000 and the Cielo Vista school at $309,000. Sanders reported that even without these two, the building record would have been tabulated well over the million dollar mark.

New home construction led the valuation for this month, amounting for $633,000 for 33 dwellings. Building permits were issued for 11 apartment houses with a total of 91 units for a total valuation of $462,000.

Other permits issued during the month included 25 dwelling additions at a total valuation of $66,819; 14 swimming pools at $61,000; four additions to commercial buildings, $54,000; 16 cabanas, $49,200; one addition to an industrial building at $42,000; one eight-unit hotel at $24,000; one hotel addition, $15,000, and one commercial building at $10,000.

Pope to Deliver Easter Message

VATICAN CITY — Pope Pius XII will deliver his annual Easter message Sunday morning to millions of persons throughout the world, the Vatican announced today.

LOS ANGELES UP — The husband and brother of missing socialite Evelyn Throsby Scott, 63, both lost today in their battle to be named trustee of her $250,000 estate. Superior Judge Mildred Lillie ruled both were "unfit persons" to control the estate and named the Citizens National Trust Bank.

DENVER UP — The Secret Service office here said today it has arrested a 35-year old Kentuckian who threatened to kill President Eisenhower.

SACRAMENTO UP — Gov. Goodwin J. Knight warned the Senate today he would veto any water reorganization bill that substituted a strong policy-making board for a department headed by a single director.

WASHINGTON UP — The government today filed anti-trust charges against American Radiator and Sanitary Corp. for alleged domination of the kitchen and bathroom equipment industry.

ALGIERS UP — Another 1300 NATO-trained French troops poured ashore in Algeria today and the 17-month-old rebellion showed no signs of lessening.

Boys Club Appeals for Furniture

Palm Springs Boys Club, a Community Chest sponsored agency, today appealed for various items which would aid in making the clubhouse at 1000 East Andreas Road more inviting.

Chuck La Frantz, director, said that items needed include small tables and chairs, couches, a radio, and record players.

Persons who have extra items, or who plan to close their homes here for the summer and wish to donate some things prior to doing so, are asked to call 7559 before 3 p. m., or 5980 from 3 to 5, and 6:30 to 9.

The Boys Club will collect all articles donated, La Frantz said.

The Illinois Central Railroad has had stewardesses on its streamline passenger trains since 1936. Michigan farmers produce from 90 to 95 per cent of the nation's white pea bean crop annually.

Burke-Herbert Hearing Set for April 27 by State

California Public Utilities Commission will hold a public hearing at 1 p. m., Friday, April 27, in the Palm Springs city council chambers in the matter of Anthony Burke, 70-117 Wonders Palms Road, Palm Valley, versus Montague N. Herbert, Box JJ, Cathedral City.

Burke, the complainant, is requesting that Herbert, the defendant, be required to serve water to the Burke property and that Herbert's water service be declared a public utility.

Examiner Grant Syphers will preside at the hearing.

Dillinger Charged with Driving While Intoxicated

Joseph V. Dillinger, of 66-616 East Estrella, Desert Hot Springs, was given until April 3 to obtain counsel and enter a plea to three charges including drunk driving before Judge Eugene Theriault's Justice Court.

Dillinger, a cook by trade, was arrested Tuesday night in Desert Hot Springs by California Highway Patrol officers and charged with drunk driving, driving without a license and driving hazardously. His license was suspended after two previous drunk driving convictions, one in San Clemente and one in Banning.

His bail was set at $300.

Lions Club Observes Annual Day for Fathers, Sons and Daughters

Fathers, Sons and Daughters day was observed by Palm Springs Lions Club in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi with one of the most enjoyable programs placed before members and guests in some time. The Starlite Room was filled to capacity with club members, their sons and daughters and visiting Lions.

The program was arranged by Bob Morris, program chairman for the club and Leo Athans, local automobile dealer, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the artists.

Babe Mathies and wife, Ruth, first entertained the club and guests with mystifying magic interspersed with comedy as club members got into the act.

Then came a delightful half hour of accordion music by Dick

Contino not only entertained on the accordion but also presented a piano number and closed with a vocal.

He won thunderous applause from the large gathering.

Judge E. E. Theriault presided during the luncheon session during which a sizeable collection was taken for the club's various charitable activities.

Red Norvo Trio to Open Tonight in Jimmy Van Heusen's Piano Bar

The famous Red Norvo Trio, stars of radio and television and the leading night clubs and hotels, will open tonight, March 30, in Jimmy Van Heusen's Piano Bar at the Desert Inn.

And, as an added attraction, there also will appear Rudy Rende, unusual new piano and song stylist.

Red Norvo has been a headliner in the entertainment world with his own combo since 1935, when he was only 25. Even prior to that, he was associated with such well known personalities as Ben Bernie and Paul Whiteman. Later, he will be remembered as appearing with Benny Goodman and Woody Herman before again returning to his own group.

Aside from recording his own all-star combination, he has been featured with Capitol artists Benny Goodman, Peggy Lee, Julia Lee, Kay Starr and Stan Hasselgard.

In describing the Norvo talent, phrases like "impeccable taste," "flawless technique" and "original interpretation" have been reiterated for the past decade. Benny Goodman summed it up as follows: "There are two kinds of xylophone players—there is Red Norvo and there are all the rest."

PALM DESERT has something new this week, with the addition of a new pump island at Jerry Malone's Union Service Station. Hal Kapp, president of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, pumps the first gallon of gasoline from the new pumps for Cliff Henderson, founder of Palm Desert Shadow Mountain Club. Henderson is congratulating Jerry Malone on the addition. Malone is president of the Palm Desert Rotary. (Johnson photo)

Henderson Buys Land in Thermal

PALM DESERT—Cliff Henderson, founder of the Shadow Mountain Club and president of the Palm Desert Corporation, is reported to be establishing a business and recreation development in Thermal.

A 30-acre section of land at the corner of Avenue 56 and Highway 111 was purchased by Henderson from W. C. Stroube, owner of considerable Coachella Valley property including the well known Stroube Farms. It includes a quarter of a mile frontage on Avenue 56 and the highway and takes in the present post office building. Dick Davis, Indio realtor, handled the deal and the amount of the transaction was not announced.

Avenue 56, which is presently being widened and will soon become one of the main arteries across the Valley, will be an important street on which the new development will face.

Henderson, it is reported, is planning to build shops and stores and will make the development a business center.

Pan American Day Set Here for April 14

RIVERSIDE — The supervisors adopted a resolution this week proclaiming Saturday, April 14 to be Pan-American Day and urging municipalities and civic organizations to participate in making the day a success.

The purpose of the annual event is to celebrate good relations existing among the 21 republics of the Americas.

"Coronation" night last Monday was really a show. With so many visitors in the desert, the Shadow Room as well as the Indio Room were both packed. The Queen was Miss Terry Drury of Flintridge, the Princesses were Lola Roche of Palm Springs, Elohe Roshong of North Hollywood and Mrs. Glen Newton of Los Angeles. The floor show starred Al Morgan, pianist of the Desert Inn, Nanty McDonald, singer and the ever popular Arlene Harris.

Hotel Directory Published by Palm Desert CC

PALM DESERT — The Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, through its hotel and lodge division, has just published a comprehensive list of all member hotels, motels and lodges in the Palm Desert areas, together with rates and accommodations available, for the benefit of those making inquiries concerning such accommodations.

Printed on a format suitable for folding and mailing, the new publication fills a long-felt need. It is available without cost to all members for distribution to their patrons and others seeking such information.

Plans are now under way to publish a new two-color brochure of general information for distribution. This project will include general points of interest, a scenic map of the Valley and all pertinent data pertaining to the Coachella Valley, showing mileages from Palm Desert to outstanding points of interest.

Recently published was a complete list of all Palm Desert business houses, classified as to types of business. This business directory was printed on cardboard stock designed to be displayed on the wall of every hotel or lodge unit, business offices and private residences for quick and ready reference.

Area Building Totals $22,237

CATHEDRAL CITY — Building permits for this area reached a total of $22,237 during the past week, with Frank Rubin of this community taking out a permit for a home and carport valued at $7,840.

Other permits issued included: Dr. Sam Weaver of Cathedral City, dwelling, $2,000; Estella M. Wiener, of Rancho Mirage, alterations, $1,440; Mrs. F. Knox of Rancho Mirage, dwelling, $3,600; and Joseph Kikavi of Cathedral City, dwelling and carport, $7,277.

EAVESDROPPING AT THE B-BAR-H RANCH CLUB—By Billie

Hi everybody! The B-Bar-H Ranch is now a club and welcoming oodles of new members all of the time. Friday and Saturday nights, there's dancing to the fine music of the Red Lackey Trio. The dances are just for members but the dining room is open to the public, and the Harry McKenzies are hosts.

The Ranch is jumpin' and jiving; overflowing with guests and plenty of the small fry are here. Ed and Jo Clifford's brood all arrived from Seattle. Patty, Chuck, Jimmy and Holly, also their governess Gretta Christian. Ditto, Fat and Chuck Jennings' three lovely daughters, Charlotte, Janet and Susie. Their nephew Howard also arrived with the girls.

Cannon, Stevens Named to Board of CV District

PALM DESERT — Harry B. Cannon of Palm Desert and Hawthorne F. Stevens of Oasis were appointed by the board of supervisors this week to terms on the Coachella Valley Mosquito Abatement District.

The supervisors also adopted a resolution to comply with a request by the district's trustees, providing that the board of trustees will in the future have seven members, four from the unincorporated areas of Mecca, Thermal, Oasis and Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage, Cathedral City, and three from the cities of Indio, Coachella and Palm Springs.

Dr. C. S. Johnson of Mecca now represents the Mecca area, and Ben Laffin of Thermal, the Thermal area.

Dr. F. B. Dozier, representing the City of Indio is the only municipal representative at present.

Cannon formerly served on the board when he lived in Coachella. His new term will expire January 2, 1957, and that of Stevens on January 2, 1958.

"This is a good move," remarked Supervisor Berkey who recommended approval of a seven-member board, and submitted the names of the two new appointees.

Public Defender Given Allowance for Use of Car

DESERT EMPIRE—Use of his private car in discharge of his duties on official business for the county, and reimbursement for mileage, was authorized by the supervisors this week for John P. Carroll, assistant public defender in Indio on a part time basis, on recommendation by Administrative Officer Clay Begole.

Maurice C. Sherill, public defender, requested permission for Carroll to use his own car in his work, and R. A. Smith, county garage superintendent, gave his approval.

Carroll's duties involves representing indigent defendants in the Justice Courts at Palm Springs, Indio, Coachella, Mecca and Blythe in the Superior Court at Indio.

ny Simms, the Jack Jones and daughters Taffy and Priscilla and son, Tony. There also sunning and tanning, were Jack and Vineta Swanson.

Recent visitors at the B-Bar-H Ranch Club were that talented actress Kim Novak, also Richard Conte and his lovely family.

HOSPITAL ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE BAN REQUESTED

The supervisors received a recommendation from the county hospital commission Monday that county counsel be asked to confer with Riverside city officials with a view to enacting appropriate legislation to prohibit anyone bringing alcoholic beverages to patients at the General Hospital of the county at Arlington.

The matter was referred to county counsel and it was observed that any legislation would be a matter for the city since the hospital is located within city limits.

The appointment of Mrs. Boynton F. Jones, as chairman of the American Cancer Society's 1956 Cancer Crusade for Palm Desert was announced here today by Joseph S. Long, President of the Society's Riverside County Branch. The educational and fund raising campaign will be launched here on Friday, April 6, in conjunction with the three day showing of the Stanthony Hospitality House sponsored by the Woman's Club of Palm Desert of which Mrs. Clarence Goodwin is chairman.

Board Backs Avenue 38 Road

PALM DESERT — At a regular weekly meeting of the board of directors of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, the backing of the Chamber was sought by Mrs. Ruth Sougey, vice-president of the Avenue 38 Improvement Association, in seeking development of Avenue 38 from Del Sol Road through to Highway 99.

The board, after discussing the matter with Mrs. Sougey, voted unanimously to support the project and to write a letter to the Riverside County Board of Supervisors expressing their support.

It was felt by members of the Palm Desert group that any development involving new roads in this end of the Valley would be of general benefit to all Valley communities, opening up a large tract of acreage now inaccessible and eventually adding substantial improvements to the tax rolls.

COMMON SENSE FACTS FOR NEW CAR BUYERS

When you buy a new car, you want the best "deal"—or, the most for your money. Today it isn't easy to be sure you're getting the best "deal," and confusing advertising claims are making it more and more difficult. This is our effort to bring understanding out of confusion—to give you facts that will help you be sure you're getting the best "deal," whatever make of car you buy.

There are two basic facts you should know when buying a new car.

1 No dealer can give you more for your trade-in than it's worth.

Used cars have a definite market value, so no dealer can intelligently allow much more for your car than any other dealer—because he can't possibly sell your car for much more than any other dealer. Any big over-allowance will have to be made up somewhere else in the "deal."

2 No dealer can sell you a car without making a fair profit.

Like any other merchant, every dealer has overhead—salaries, rent, taxes, gas and light. And, like every other businessman, every dealer has an investment in his business. So, every dealer must make a fair profit on every car he sells—to pay his overhead and justify his investment.

As Lincoln-Mercury dealers, we respect both your intelligence and our product. Here, in short, is our policy.

- 1 We give you a fair allowance for your trade-in.
- 2 We sell our products at a reasonable price.
- 3 We make a fair profit to cover our overhead and investment.
- 4 You get good value for your automotive dollar.

We would very much like to sell you a new Lincoln or a new Mercury, because we think that they're the best buys in their respective price classes. Come in and let us show you why we think so.

The next in this series takes you through a step-by-step procedure that will save you money on any make car. Watch for "How To Save Money When You Buy A New Car"—by Ed Sullivan, in this paper one week from today.

"In the Month of May" Opens on April 4

Wednesday, April 4, will be the beginning of the 23rd annual spring play of San Ysidro's fiesta, "En el Mes de Mayo" (In the Month of May), at Padua Hills Theatre. It is a stirring presentation of the legend of San Ysidro and the Mexican farmer folk.

Tlaloc, the Aztec Rain God, was worshipped in Mexico until the Spaniards came and substituted a Christian saint, San Ysidro, for the deity of the waters, but many of the strange harmonies and hypnotic rhythms of pagan rituals survive today to provide the mystic undertone to "En el Mes de Mayo".

Apache dances to the four winds, Aztec sacrificial rites, and other exotic dance forms, including a spectacular dance learned from a century old Indian by Luis Abundiz, are contrasted with novel Maypole, floral and other modern dance numbers in this drama of a simple farmer whose faith in the patron saint enabled him to help his famine stricken neighbors in time of drought.

Exotic head-dresses with flaunting plumes, metal ornaments and beads, seen in the Aztec dances, are contrasted with the quaint finery of the Huastecan Indians of Tamaulipas. The gay-colored skirts of the señoritas are set off with brightly embroidered white blouses and striking shoulder capes, called "quezemets".

"En el Mes de Mayo", presented in English, will be presented Wednesday through Saturday evenings, and Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, through May 15.

"La Llorona del Rio" (The Weeper of the River), the colorful story of a ghost in Veracruz, ends its six week run on Saturday, March 31.

More Clothes in Wardrobe But They Aren't Keepsakes

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — Machine made clothes make modern wardrobes the most extensive in history, yet historians of the future may have trouble assembling relics of our favorite mid-century costumes.

We are not as sentimental about assembly line fashions as our female ancestors were about their handmade Sunday best. They used to put away graduation dresses, plus the fans, hair ribbons, shoes and petticoats that went with them. We buy graduation dresses that double for Summer dances.

A 73-year-old former department store executive whose hobby is collecting stockings, for instance, says he got many of his most important museum stockings from wedding day keepsakes of the last century. In those days a girl might splurge on a pair of white silk stockings with a lace panel, inset in front for her wedding day—and never set foot in the stockings again.

"Stockings just aren't considered as choice today," Ira J. Haskell, the stocking historian, explained. A man with Haskell's hobby 100 years from now would have to rely on hosiery company official files and first lady inauguration outfits.

Haskell accumulated more than 400 pairs of stockings in 20 years of collecting, the largest private stocking collection on record. He presented the stockings to the Commercial Museum in Philadelphia 10 years ago, and has just completed a book, "Hosiery Through the Years," to set down a record of his research.

A last-minute run seems a simple thing when a nylon-clad woman of today looks at the stockings women used to wear. Haskell, who lives in Lynn, Mass., goes all the way back to the childhood days of Queen Elizabeth I to relate the gradual emergence of shapely stockings.

The girlish Queen wore yellow silk stockings with shapeless legs and a flaring wide hem above the knee, Haskell reports. Somebody gave her a pair of black silk knit stockings after she became Queen, and Elizabeth vowed "Henceforth I will wear no more cloth stockings!"

By the middle of the last century, fashionable women were urged in Godey's magazine to "bathe feet at least three times a week" and indulge in silk stockings only if they did not plan to do much walking. Lamb's wool was best for long walks, the magazine reported.

The urge to attract even more attention to legs reappears constantly, from the striped, spotted and bright red stockings of the Gay 90's to fish embroidery designs in 1918 and the rhinestone and beaded clock designs of today.

Haskell hopes more of the fabulous designs on our wispy nylons will be preserved for the future. "Nobody," he sighed in a telephone conversation, "ever thinks of preserving the present."

Gene and Patty Morgan were visitors in Palm Springs for several days. Gene, who was formerly with radio station KCMJ is now in the advertising business in Los Angeles. The Morgans have two children, Laura and Lex, who spent a week with their grandmother Mrs. Ferol Morgan, in Turlock, while their parents were here.

Flower Festival at Riverside in Mid-April

The Riverside Community Flower Show Association will hold its "Festival of Flowers" in the Memorial auditorium on April 14, from 2 to 10 p.m.

The show will feature competition in arrangements, miniatures, corsages, potted plants, garden bouquets and specimens, with special sections for men, children and first time exhibitors.

There will be workshop demonstrations by floral arrangers, commercial exhibits by florists and nurseries and non-competitive professional exhibits. Open garden tours are also offered.

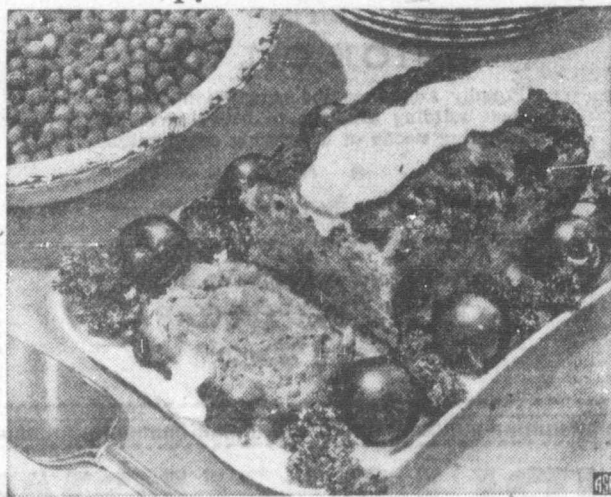

Wheelchairs will be available at the door and a snack bar will be open during the show. Admission is nominal with children under 12 free.

Perfect Popcorn Popping Pointers

CHICAGO (AP) — Popcorn Institute experts offer these suggestions for turning out perfect popcorn:

1. Warm the popper, heavy pan or skillet.
2. Put in one-fourth cup of cooking oil or shortening.
3. Let the oil get hot—about three minutes. Drop in three or four kernels. When they begin to spin in the hot oil, it's time to start popping.
4. Pour enough kernels from can to cover the bottom of popper or skillet.
5. Cover with lid and shake gently. When you hear the last few "pops," remove pan from heat and empty contents into a large bowl. Pour in melted butter and salt to taste.

Crispy Stuffed Ham Loaf

A little ham goes a long way in a nourishing new recipe just developed by one of the nation's largest bakeries. Served at home as a main dinner course or sliced cold for school lunches, "Crispy Stuffed Ham Loaf" is sure to satisfy hearty winter appetites. Crushed crispy cracker crumbs replace ordinary bread crumbs in the stuffing, and add extra-rich flavor to this budget-wise new wintertime dish. Make it this easy way.

Crispy Stuffed Ham Loaf

- 1½ pounds (4 cups) baked or ready to eat ham, ground
2 eggs, beaten
½ cup milk
2 tablespoons minced onion
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon Tabasco sauce
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
3 cups (72) crushed Sunshine Krispy crackers
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup minced onion
1 medium-sized garlic bud, peeled and cut in half
¼ cup minced celery
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon thyme
2 teaspoons oregano
2 tablespoons parsley flakes
1 cup hot water
- Put ham through medium blade of food chopper. In a large bowl, combine ground ham, beaten eggs, milk, 2 tablespoons minced onion, ¼ teaspoon pepper, Tabasco sauce and mustard. Blend well. Pack about two-thirds of the mixture firmly onto bottom and along the long sides of a greased 9-inch by 5-inch loaf pan, leaving the ends of the pan without ham mixture. Crumble crispy crackers into bits about the size of kernels of corn between the palms of the hands. In a medium-sized skillet, heat butter or margarine. Add remaining minced onion, garlic and celery. Sauté until onion is lightly browned (about 4 minutes). Add remaining ingredients; bring mixture to a boil, stirring to blend. Remove garlic. Pour prepared crispy cracker crumbs into large bowl; blend the celery mixture into crumbs, tossing until well moistened. Pack dressing into hollow in ham loaf. Pack remaining ham mixture over the top and bake at 375° F. (moderately hot oven) for 1 hour, or until loaf is lightly browned. Remove to heated platter and slice. Makes 8 generous slices. Serve with cream sauce or mustard, if desired.

Here for Easter

Spending Easter Week at the C. E. Glass's "Stonehill" are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pearson and their daughter Marjorie. Also down from the San Francisco area are Mrs. Willard Spencer and her daughter Jean Louise. A birthday dinner party will be held this weekend for Miss Pearson's fiancé, Gordon L. Laverty.

The lighted cross on the mountain slope above the Village . . . takes on fresh significance as Easter draws near . . . Easter comes early this year . . . on All Fools Day as it does every 11 years . . . and, as always, the religious holidays put a brake on social activities . . . slowing things to a canter . . . But a glance at next week's calendar shows something scheduled for every night . . . Someone said that Palm Springs is such a wonderfully healthy place that you wouldn't dare take vitamins . . . but, honestly, we need them to keep up with the social whirligig . . . for it has a tendency to off set all the health-giving sunshine . . . which some of us sleep through . . . and some of us work through . . .

Mrs. Henry Reid will be the guest of honor . . . when Mrs. Donald Gilmore and Mrs. Dorothy Hoover entertain at a luncheon party at the Racquet Club on Monday . . . The Reids are planning a six week vacation in Hawaii . . . Their son Henry M. Reid Jr. and his wife and children, Chip and Candy, are here from Diable, California, to spend Easter with the Reids . . . The Reids will go North to visit the Reids Jr. before sailing from San Francisco on May 16 . . . Mrs. Hoover, who recently returned from Honolulu, will, as is her custom, spend the Summer at Claremont Country Club in Piedmont . . . and she and Mrs. Gilmore are planning a trip to Japan next Fall . . .

Sue Seay (military society editor for the San Diego Union) and her husband Lt. Howard Rodwell Seay . . . will spend the Easter weekend in Palm Springs at the Turquoise Villa . . . Also in the party will be Miss Beth Mohr, bride's editor and Robert Hatch, Sunday feature editor of the Union . . . and Richard R. Reynolds, USNR, who has just finished appearing as the male lead in "The Man in Blue" at the old Globe Theater in San Diego.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert X. Morrell of Los Angeles have taken a couple of bungalows at the Tennis Club . . . which they will occupy on Easter with their children Gregory, Robert, Jr., Toni and Michael . . . The Morrell family will be among the guests at the Easter Sunday Night buffet . . . when they will join Bob and Dolores Hope and their youngsters Linda, Anthony, Nora and Kelly . . .

A foursome at Spur and Sable Saturday night . . . were Phyllis and Joe Froggatt, Betty and Monte Herbert . . . quietly celebrating the Froggatts' anniversary . . . Many more to these two nice people . . .

James Kemper arrived home in time to attend, with Mrs. Kemper, the funeral of his friend Nate Milnor at Forest Lawn on Tuesday . . . Kemper has been back East on business . . . and attended the funeral of Louis Bromfield, who was a director in the Kemper insurance companies . . .

Tom and Jeri Hull are back at their Reseda Ranch after an Acapulco holiday . . . They were entertained by that internationally known hostess Emi Fors . . . with the guests dancing barefooted on the beach after dinner . . . Among other guests was former Palm Springs Geri Kellard . . . The Hulls and Mrs. Kellard were next-door neighbors when they both lived here . . . but had never met . . .

Tom and Jeri also visited Mexico City . . . and they were having breakfast in the airport and had a ringside seat for the arrival of the presidential plane to pick up Mexican President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines . . . for a "summit" conference with Eisenhower and Canada's Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent . . . Jeri said the Mexican Army turned out for this . . . with all the military in full dress and soldiers stationed every three feet along the highway to the airport . . .

I asked Jeri when they were coming down to Palm Springs . . . and she said that after Easter they would be down to spend a fortnight at the Marion Hicks house . . .

People haven't forgotten what fun those Big Top Balls are . . . On Tuesday there had been very little publicity, the invitations were not out . . . and the tickets hadn't even been printed . . . but the committee already had 220 reservations . . . Not ba-a-a-d . . .

Mrs. George Beckerman and children, Ronny and Michael, who are in Palm Springs for a 10-day visit are calling on their many friends here. The Beckermans live in Santa Monica and are guests at the Capri while in the Village.

Dungaree Dolls and Dudes at Birthday Party

A "Dungaree Dolls and Dudes" party at St. Theresa Hall Wednesday evening celebrated the birthday of Patsy Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders. Prizes went to the best-dressed dungaree doll and dude. Classmates of Patsy's were guests at the party. Food was served with ice cream and cake topping the evening.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. John McIntyre and Father Michael O'Donohoe.

Easter Guests at Kuehn Home

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kuehn of 1479 San Lorenzo, are entertaining relatives as houseguests through Easter. Dr. and Mrs. Edward B. Tuohy and children, Barbara, Michael and Pat of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson and children Ricky, Pam and Kathy of Walnut Creek, arrived during the week. The guests are enjoying the sunshine and rest they have been anticipating through the winter. The Kuehns are entertaining their guests with nightly barbecues in the patio.

Mr. and Mrs. Gil Causey and children, Nancy and Terry, and Mr. Causey's mother, Mrs. Jo Causey, all of Glendale, are spending a week here as guests at the Casa Del Sol. This is an annual event for the Causey family and, being riding enthusiasts, they are participating in many of the group rides held this week.

Jayceettes to Usher at Concert

Jayceettes, wearing their official yellow-checked Jayceette gowns, will usher at the Easter Night symphony at the polo grounds, it was announced following the monthly meeting of the group Wednesday evening at the home of Barbara Harrison at 1075 Suntan Lane.

The coming variety show and the convention on May 3-6 were also discussed at the business session, which was conducted by President Rosalyn Bronstein.

A social hour, with Dede Clemens, Eleanor Haddock and Barbara Matucio as hostesses, followed.

Easterners at Annino Home

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Annino of Outpost Estates were Mr. and Mrs. John Colonghi of Middletown, Connecticut, who are on a sightseeing trip and vacation. Also visiting his aunt and uncle was Louis Annino, son of Angelo "Pat" Annino, who is building inspector for Middletown, former home of the Palm Springs Anninos.

Have Guests for Easter Week

Easter week guests with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barsch of Andreas Road, are her two sisters Mrs. Warren Stockton, wife of Judge Stockton of Bakersfield, and Mrs. Stanley Court, chain theater operators of Livingston, California. Other visitors at the Barsch home are Mrs. Bert Dennis, who operates a cattle ranch near Porterville, and Mrs. Beulah Leonard, school principal of Reedley, California.

Mrs. George Beckerman and children, Ronny and Michael, who are in Palm Springs for a 10-day visit are calling on their many friends here. The Beckermans live in Santa Monica and are guests at the Capri while in the Village.

Suggestion to Mr. Eisenhower

Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay has handed his resignation, effective April 15, to President Eisenhower and the President has accepted it with "profound personal regrets." We have no doubt the regret is genuine, for McKay has been a quiet, efficient member of the Eisenhower team, provoking remarkably little controversy in his administration of a job notorious for its political cross-currents.

It now becomes incumbent upon the President to name a successor. Cabinet appointments are subject, of course, to Senate confirmation, but it is probable that body will approve almost anyone the President selects.

In this connection we can think of no better choice than Dan Thornton, former governor of Colorado. Whether Mr. Thornton would accept is another question. But if he would, the selection would be most fortuitous for the country and a high asset to the Eisenhower team in Washington.

In our opinion, only one possibility would justify his being passed up in Ike's consideration for the Interior Secretaryship.

That is the possibility — and we hope the probability — Mr. Thornton is being saved by the Republican strategists as a potential dark horse nominee for the vice presidency should the Republican National Convention become mired in a stalemate over Vice President Nixon's renomination.

Although President Eisenhower has endorsed Nixon as strongly as is appropriate at this stage, there always remains the chance the small but vocal band of anti-Nixonites may stymie the convention. The President has made it plain that he will not force any personal choice on the convention, and therefore probably would not make a last ditch fight for Nixon, however strong his personal feelings.

Then probably would ensue a frantic, last-minute search by delegates for a dark horse who is unmarred by long-standing political disputations and enemies.

In this event, the Republican high command may well be reasoning now, Thornton might be the man to have in "reserve." If so, we applaud the strategy.

But if not, it is our opinion he is the best man for the GOP to push for the McKay position and the man most meriting Mr. Eisenhower's consideration.

Dan Thornton is a Colorado rancher and business executive. He knows at first hand the problems of handling and developing the national resources which are the Interior Department's administrative domain. He knows conservation from a lifetime in the Great West; he knows businesslike methods from a career of business success; he knows public administration from three terms as an elected public official in Colorado.

An equally important factor is that he rose to political eminence in his own state by two remarkable leaps, which left him unhampered by the long years of political obligations incurred by the conventional politician rising by the route, say, of local school board to city council to mayor to state representative to state senator to governor. Each such step normally attaches political strings the career aspirant can never wholly break. When he reaches the highest office, those strings may well have become an overwhelming shackle against independent thought and decision.

In either the vice presidency or secretaryship, Thornton would be uniquely free of this handicap. He went through — nor is burdened by — none of the office-holding at so-called precinct level. His first plunge was into the race for the Colorado Senate, and he was victorious by a vote almost unprecedented for a political tyro. There his ability and performance so impressed Coloradans he went easily into the state's governorship — not once but twice.

He retired by choice, and still free of the earmarks and ways of the typical deal-making politician.

During recent months he has taken the stump for President Eisenhower's reelection, convinced Ike has a program the nation cannot afford in its own interests to leave unfinished. We believe that is his only motive — selfless and idealistic. One finds no more hint of personal aggrandizement in Mr. Thornton than in Mr. Eisenhower himself.

That is why we fear there may be doubt the former would accept the secretaryship even if offered. Nevertheless we earnestly hope — unless the GOP has vice presidential plans for him — the offer is made, and with such insistence from Mr. Eisenhower that Mr. Thornton accepts. — M.L.H.

And Still Smoke Trouble (Redlands Daily Facts)

Sometimes it seems as if an orange grower can't win.

If he wants to remain in the business of growing fruit he is compelled to get rid of orchard heaters that produce too much smoke. The cost of replacing his equipment is just so much deduction from profit.

Well, then, why not beat the game by pulling out the trees and subdividing the ground for a housing tract? That ought to solve all of the air pollution problems. But no, there is still trouble.

In Los Angeles County the Air Pollution Control Board of Los Angeles won't permit the burning of trees on the cleared ground, the almost universal practice in Redlands at this time. The Pomona Progress-Bulletin took this editorial note:

The situation seemed to develop to a crisis this week. Subdividers who have purchased property, heretofore used for agricultural purposes, have been forbidden to burn trees or brush in clearing property. If allowed to burn the clearing the cost is about five to six dollars an acre. If the subdivider is compelled to haul it to the desert or bury it in some canyon many miles distant, the cost runs to $500 to $600 an acre.

Experienced weathermen, nationally known, claim that there are plenty of days in Southern California when there is no ceiling, which means that smoke would rise to a height of 10,000 feet or more to be carried miles away from any section of Los Angeles County. On such days it would be impossible for such burning to cause smog.

Last week practically all the cities of the east end of Los Angeles County sent city officials, including mayors, managers, city administrators and others to meet with representatives of the Air Pollution Control Board. Testimony was presented by such weather authorities as Floyd Young.

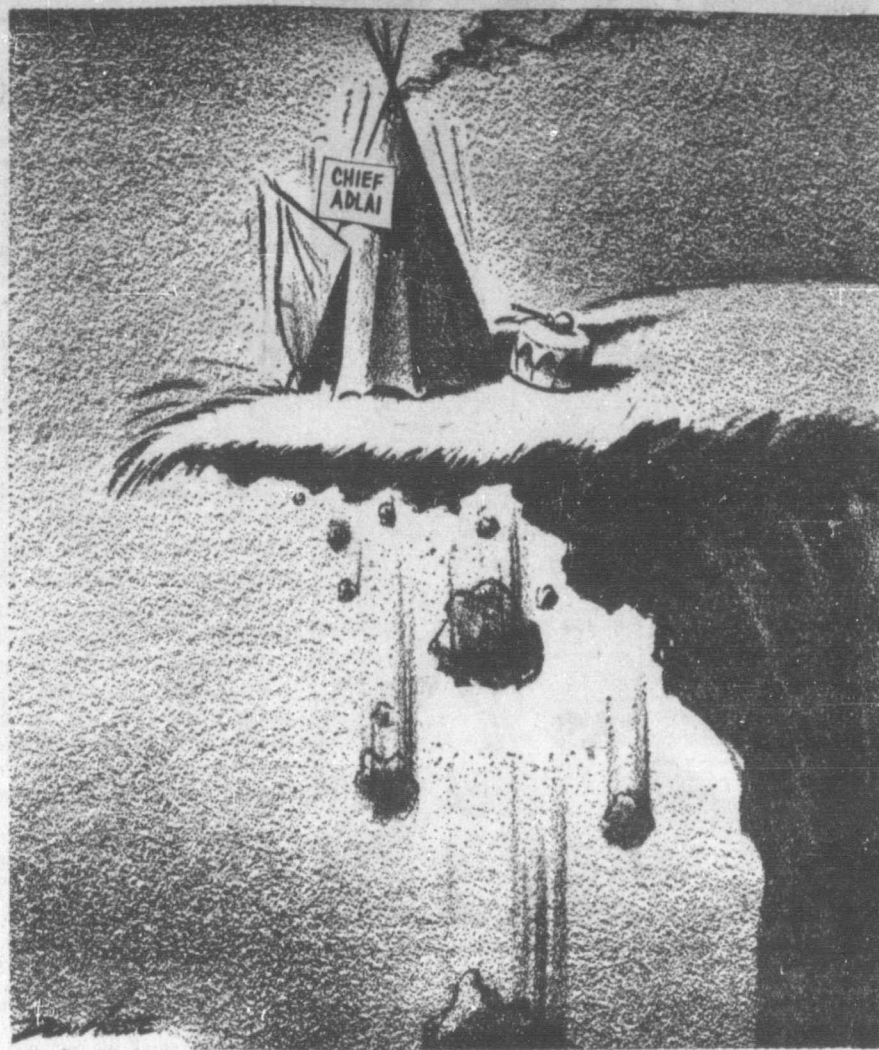

The matter is of much significance, particularly to all property in the east end of Los Angeles County because of the many acres being cleared for subdivision.

Socialized Medicine (Times Herald, Port Huron, Michigan)

Socialized medicine is just one of the socialist programs that does not work — and that never has worked. The United States did well to turn down socialized medicine — this country is the healthiest country in the world and free enterprise medicine is responsible for that happy state of affairs.

HUNDREDS OF LIONS will converge on Palm Springs May 4, 5 and 6. It will be the annual convention of District 4-E of Lionism. The district includes San Diego, Imperial and the eastern end (from Palm Springs that-way) of Riverside County.

Kenneth Brott, secretary of the local host club, was entrusted with the task of notifying every Lion Club member in the district of the convention. Twenty five hundred of them. But he wasn't frustrated.

Thursday night he sent a wire
to Wilburn L. Wilson, treasurer of Lions International at Chicago,
asking for the list.

Saturday morning by parcel post, special delivery, he received a large box.

In it were 2,500 addressed envelopes to all Lions in the district and they even had the local return address in the corner.

"Just another indication that this age does move," Brott said.

PALM SPRINGS LIONS staged

For Babe Mathies and his wife

came Dick Contino, noted accom-

Lions clapping their hands with applause.

While in town, appearing as a

Contino took a swim in the inspired, according to Joe Glas-

the Howard Manor remains in the public eye, that he wrote a song about it. (Contino being a song writer as well as accom-

He Disagrees

To the Editor:

The daily Palm Springs Desert
Sun is most excellent with but two noticeable exceptions.

1. You do not have Dick Tracy.

2. That anti-America publicity blurb from the United States Chamber of Commerce which appeared in the editorial column of The Sun a couple of weeks ago. It was unsigned, but I am sure it was not written by the Senior Editor because he has blood in his veins. Who ever put that out had Sierra Snow Pack running through where blood should be.

And it was just as damaging to the people of all parts of the United States as the melting snow pack of the Sierras will be to the people of northeastern California, because of the lack of flood control in northern and central California and northeastern United States.

And, just for the record, The U. S. Army Engineers are responsible for flood control, so it is an item of national expense not just local.

I just happened to be through the northeastern states last Summer and in northern California last December, January and February. The worst I could wish to the writer of that bad publicity is that he be marooned on the El or the Russian or the Feather or the Humboldt or the Yuba the next time nature cuts

loose as it did in the past year.
Who knows. After such an experience he might apply for first papers and be reborn an American instead of a preferred stock.

I must go with this ode to the cross that shines nightly above
the city of Palm Springs, placed there by Earle C. Anthony before Easter of last year.

"Last night . . .
"I watched the sunset die . . .
alone

"I saw each cloud chill, then

"And then your longed-for

"Smiled at me from the silent

"And your arms reached out

"And your lips bade me keep my faith in you
"Throughout the years that lead to

"Eternity."
Submitted by Don Howard.

That's a good beginning for an Easter column which should not see daylight until Saturday
but couldn't resist the temptation to push it along for others in Palm Springs to enjoy. This guy, Don Howard, is a prolific writer of poetry with which he deluges my desk almost daily.
I'm grateful, too, and sorry
Don that I just can't use them all, but keep them coming. I like them and so does the Publisher, Ward Risvold.

DON THE BEACHCOMBER

has been a scene of family activity this Easter week. The gay voices of the young filling that spot with the thrill of living in a bright and shiny world free of troublesome school hours. "Ah," sighed Pat O'Dea, "to be a kid
once more."

The first place Clark Gable and his wife visited on arriving in town was Don the Beach-comber and the next night "The King" and his lovely were late guests in the Carnival Room of The Rossmore hotel where they listened to Ukie, his piano playing and repartee. The previous evening Frank Sinatra, Jimmy Van Heusen, brothers Dennis,
and Gary Crosby tilted words and music with the same entertainer who is well known to the biggies of the motion picture world.

If you want anything and must have it right now do like Dave Sebastian at the Doll
House. His waitress, lovely Shirley Lish, was adreaming about this and that when the yearning for ketchup overcame

the patron who is the widower of Carmen Miranda. Up he jumped and went for the red stuff himself which action in turn caused the waitresses to giggle.

DOLL HOUSING too were
Jack Benny and Mr. and Mrs.
Skinnay Ennis with their seven year old son, Chris. It was 17 years ago when Skinnay popped
the fatal question and Mrs.
Ennis became his wife. They sought the same little nook to dine where romance had blossomed into marital vows and now there were three instead of two.

Cliff Garrett of Air Research Association, Phoenix, never fails during the Winter season to jump into his B-25 with Fred Smith, test pilot, for a hop to Palm Springs every other Sunday. Their destination is one place where they break bread
and that's The Doll House too.
Elmo Purnell was the center of attention as the honoree at his birthday celebration, attended by his wife, Mr. and Mrs.
John Linkie and Mr. and Mrs.
Cliff Campbell, also at The Doll
House. And is there romance
a-blooming between Ann Miller
and Deputy State Attorney Bill O'Connor. He and she were here and there about the town including the Doll House in company with lovely Judith Howard escorted by Bill Worthing.

EVERYTHING IS peaches
and cream, very obviously between Judy Garland and Sid Luft around town too. Phil Zanville at his Zanville's barbecue and cocktail spot is tickled
pink for more than a month
now—"people have found my place at last and some of the best people too," he exclaimed.

And at The Dunes starting tonight is Al "Jealous Heart" Morgan. He is that maestro of the ivory keys whose hands float
the air as he sings those nostalgic songs and pounds the piano. Great entertainer. There for a short, short time.

Easter egg hunts for the kiddies for the third successive year will take place at El Mira-dor hotel Sunday and don't forget, mama and papa, take the kiddies to the Mayfair egg hunt
from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow, Saturday.

I'll be seeing you here and there—I'm hoping.

EARL WILSON:

Atlantic City and After

NEW YORK—I have a pedicu-lous memory (I'm not allowed to say "lousy"), but I remembered
a bouncy, blonde little "Miss Kansas" who didn't win the 1948
Miss America Pageant.

Talent's vital at Atlantic City.
As a judge, I watched the gals
acting out Shakespeare or Dorothy Parker — or showing their paintings or needlework — or shouting opera.

But sexy, vivacious Miss Kansas faced us and said in a twang:
"I have no talent. My only talent would be raising children."
The wolves yowled. But we chose Miss Bebe Shopp of St.
Paul—just a whiz with the vibraharp.

I've often pictured "Miss Kansas" on a farm near Wichita with twins and triplets, working on quadruplets.

The other day I went to interview Vera Miles. "Hollywood's
new Grace Kelly," said by Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford
to be brilliantly talented.

All I knew was that she was in the Atlantic City contest once.
Now I beheld a worldly sophisticated woman of poise.

"We have met before," she murmured.

"I meet so many beautiful girls," I said groping. "In Atlantic City?"

"We even had breakfast together!" She wore a modish suit, tight black sweater under it;
she'd be 25 now.

"Yeah, with 55 other girls and 10 other judges," I said. Stalling in my own corn-fed Ohio way to figure out who she was, I said,
"What happened to you?"

"I was signed by RKO, but never appeared in front of a camera. I went to 20th Century-Fox. Still didn't make a picture."

"But why?"

"Because I had no talent. Remember me?"

"Miss Kansas"—for I was sure now—"I can even quote your speech," I said, and did.

"Vera Miles" hadn't clicked
because she'd been "Vera Ralston" in the pageant. As third runner-up, she got a $2,500 scholarship, studied in Los Angeles,
free-lanced in TV, got married and had two daughters (and a separation) and went to London for a film, "23 Paces to Baker Street."

On "Medic," playing a woman with breast cancer, she attracted Alfred Hitchcock who signed her for 5 years and cast her opposite Henry Fonda in "The Wrong Man."

"One thing that helped me was my Kansas twang," she said. "I kept my mouth shut. People thought I was deep. I learned a lot that way.
"By the way, what's happened to Bebe Shopp?" she asked.

"Oh," I said. "She did really have great talent with the vibraharp, but she went back to St.
Paul and started raising children."

"WORM THAT LIVED IN APPLE SHOT BY WILLIAM TELL"

During Switzerland's battle for Independence from Austria William Tell became a hero when he shot an apple off his son's head on the order of the tyrant Governor, Gessler. Today if a father shot an apple, or even a pumpkin, off his son's head with a bow and arrow he'd get in trouble with the police and have his picture in the tabloids and get examined by Psychologists at Bellevue and have to do the whole thing over again the next week on the Ed Sullivan TV Show. Of course if all fathers took up this sort of thing it might cut down on juvenile delinquency (and juveniles) but it sure wouldn't appeal to the authorities (or me).

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP) — A young man named Stanley Dancer is turning the staid graybeards of harness racing into whirling dervishes today.

There was a time when the sulky sport had many hard and fast rules when it came to drivers. The men who handled the reins were regarded as novices until they reached the weathered 50's and 60's and you never, never were supposed to go out in front at the start of a race.

The curly-haired 25-year-old who looks like a bank clerk or a college student began winning driving championships at 22 and he has proved that you can win going to the front at the start and staying there.

"If you can stay there," he grins, "brown eye sparkling, "Sometimes it doesn't work."

IT WORKED OFTEN enough, to make him the leading driver at New York's Yonkers Raceway for three years. He also was top man in 1953 at Roosevelt Raceway, another New York plant where he goes back to work Monday, and was second the last two years.

That isn't to infer that he hasn't worked all winter. Dancer puts in 16 hours a day, even during the off season and despite the fact that he doesn't take his horses south.

"I don't think the change of climate does them any good," Stanley explains of the 70-odd head he handles for some 24 different owners. "They don't like the change in the feel of the ground and after all they do their racing here in the north."

Dancer, because of his preference to race on the front end and stay out of trouble, is known as the Teddy Atkinson of harness racing. And he is on his way to being a national figure in one of the fastest-rising sports of them all.

THERE WAS a time when harness racing—aside from the annual Hambletonian—drew little attention. It was regarded as a "country" sport strictly for "hay-seeds."

But then the "farmers" put in the pari-mutuel machines and last year, according to figures of the U. S. Trotting Association, more than 10 million people stormed the nation's harness tracks.

Dancer was ready when the big boom came. As a boy in New Egypt, N. J., he was "crazy about horses." He bought his first colt for $75 when he was only 16 years old and won his first race the following year against a field of veteran drivers. Winning his first championship at 22, he really startled the trot and pace world.

DANCER STILL hasn't won the national championship and it is a byword around the grand circuit, the "big business wheel" of harness racing, that a man who runs on the major tracks doesn't have much chance. Yet they wouldn't be surprised if Dancer shattered this precedent, too.

Meanwhile, young Stan is doing right well and, as another season gets under way Monday, he has two big ambitions.

"I want to win the Hambletonian and the Little Brown Jug," he explains.

And from the way he's been going, don't bet too heavily that he won't do it.

Pads Lose to L.A., 10-6

Pitching Staff of San Diego Hit by Illness

Ralph Kiner To Bow Out As Active Player On Sunday

San Diego and Sacramento clash here tomorrow at the Polo Grounds at 1:30 p.m. in the waning 1956 Spring training season with a record of six won and eight lost to date.

Yesterday the Padres were bumped by Los Angeles at Burbank by a score of 10 to 6 with Jim Peete and Eddie Erraut being touched for 14 hits. Biggest damage was done by the Angels' Casey Wise and Joe Hannah who batted in five runs between them.

PEETE WAS TOUCHED for eight runs in the first three innings on seven hits and four walks. Erraut yielded two more runs on seven hits.

Manager Bob Elliott of the Pads, with the opening of the Pacific Coast League season coming a week from Tuesday, was again singing the blues.

He said that he had only two sound pitchers available now, Eddie Erraut and Bob Kerrigan.

LLOYD DICKEY has the mumps and Bob Thomson and John Carmichael have sore elbows, he said.

It was announced that the Pads have purchased Shortstop Clarence Moore from Portland.

In the meantime, General Manager Ralph Kiner of the San Diego Club and a resident of Thunderbird, was back in batting practice at the Polo Grounds.

He is preparing to make his formal bow-out as player next Sunday when he'll serve as a pinch-hitter for the All-Stars against Hollywood in a benefit game at Gilmore Stadium, Los Angeles.

Carter Defeats Jordan in Ten

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jimmy Carter's manager said today the ex-lightweight champion's unanimous decision over Don Jordan should earn him another crack at Wallace Bud Smith's crown.

Carter won a unanimous 10-round decision over the 21-year-old Jordan Thursday night in Olympic Auditorium before 6407 fans. The gross gate was $20,924.

Both fighters scaled 138. Some fans booed the decision.

Bearden to Sacs

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Former San Francisco pitcher Gene Bearden, who has been working out here with the Milwaukee Braves, has been released by the major league club and assigned to Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League.

The Kansas University Athletic Board secretly began the retirement procedure last night by refusing to recommend that the 70-year-old mentor be rehired.

Instead, sources close to the board said, Allen's assistant coach Dick Harp, 36, was recommended for the head spot.

Bob Wiesler

Mickey McDermott

Bob Kline

ONCE AGAIN the Yankees have come up with what appears to be another good trade. This time they gave up Pitcher Bob Wiesler and three rookies to the Washington Nats for the fireballing hurler, Mickey McDermott, and Shortstop Bob Kline. (International)

At the Training Camps

PASADENA (AP)—Former Stanford University football star Chuck Essegian had five hits, including two homers, and drove in six runs yesterday as Sacramento defeated the University of Southern California, 20-0, the worst baseball defeat in Trojan history.

Rookie lefthanded pitcher Ralph Buckingham hit a bases-loaded homer for Sacramento in the fifth inning when the Solons scored nine runs. Sacramento got eight runs in the fifth.

DELAND, Fla. (AP) — The San Francisco Seals may be a "new look" club now that they belong to the Boston Red Sox but there is nothing wrong with the hitting of "old look" Bob Di Pietro.

Di Pietro, one of the three holdovers from last year's revamped Seals, yesterday clubbed a three-run homer vesterday as the California team lost a 6-5 contest to Indianapolis of the American Association.

Jordan to Get Helms Board CIF Award

Charlie Jordan, star center of the Palm Springs high school's Riverside County League basketball team, will be honored tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. at Helms Hall, Los Angeles, for his outstanding play this season.

Jordan was chosen by the 19th Southern California Board of Basketball Awards as all-southland small schools center in California Interscholastic Federation play.

During the season Jordan averaged 23.8 points per game in 20 games and was outstanding on defense.

His coach, Ralph Watt who faces surgery next Tuesday in Los Angeles is not expected to be able to be present for the ceremonies.

Say Phog Allen on His Way Out

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — The lengthy and sometimes verbally violent coaching career of Dr. Forrest C. Phog Allen probably will come to an end today, the United Press has learned.

The Kansas University Athletic Board secretly began the retirement procedure last night by refusing to recommend that the 70-year-old mentor be rehired.

Instead, sources close to the board said, Allen's assistant coach Dick Harp, 36, was recommended for the head spot.

Labine May Take Place of Lost Podres

Holds Yanks Hitless For 3 Innings As Bums Even Series

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

MEMO TO Apprentice Seaman Johnny Podres: The Brooklyn Dodgers wish you still were able to start for them but they figure things will be okay as long as Clem Labine is around.

It was Labine to the rescue again Thursday when the world champions evened their spring series with the New York Yankees at 2-2 by scoring a 10-inning, 5-4 victory. Clem closed it out without allowing a hit in three innings—reminiscent of his work in the 1955 World Series when he appeared in four games, winning one, saving another and yielding only six hits in 9 1-3 frames.

THE FAST-MOVING St. Louis Cardinals made their spring record 13-7 Thursday when homers by Tom Alston and Don Blasingame helped them score an 8-6 victory over the Phillies.

The Chicago White Sox, top American League team in citrus competition with a 12-6 mark, walloped 14 hits to route the Washington Senators, 12-2.

Art Ceccarelli extended his string of scoreless innings to 14 with a two-hit, seven-inning performance as the Kansas City Athletics beat the Detroit Tigers, 2-0.

THE BALTIMORE ORIOLES scored four runs in the 11th inning to down the Chicago Cubs, 9-5; the Cleveland Indians routed the New York Giants, 10-5, as Earl Averill and Chico Carrasquel homered for the winners and Willie Mays hit No. 8 for the losers; Johnny Logan's grand slam homer gave the Braves a 5-3 verdict over the Cincinnati Redlegs, and the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Boston Red Sox, 11-10, after hopping on $100,000 bonus rookie Frankie Baumann for eight runs in two innings.

ANAHEIM (AP)—Rookie outfielder Bob Ruck's pinch hit three-run homer in the eighth inning yesterday gave Hollywood a 5-3 exhibition win over Seattle.

It was the third straight win for Hollywood which now has a 7-5 training record.

Manager Clay Hopper planned to put the Stars through an intrasquad game today.

FULLERTON (AP)—Southpaw Harry Perkowski and Gene Fodge were scheduled to pitch for Los Angeles today against Vancouver.

Both the Angels and Mounties won games yesterday, Vancouver beating Portland, 11-10, and Los Angeles downing San Diego, 10-6.

Swaps, Nashua Weighted at 127

INGLEWOOD (AP) — If Swaps, Nashua and Bobby Brocato meet in the $100,000 Californian on May 26 at Hollywood Park, they'll each carry 127 pounds. The weight-for-age event is one of the three West Coast stakes races trainer Jim Fitzsimmons has said he would like Nashua to compete in.

Anyway, Cleanup Men are Happy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department had bad news for baseball fans today, but good news for clean-up men—the ones with brooms.

Peanuts are in "comparatively short supply" this year, the department said and consumption in the bleachers "probably will decline for the second consecutive year."

LITTLER LEADS FIELD IN AZALEA TOURNEY

Little Gene Littler of Thunderbird Country Club, playing his best golf since his Texas Open victory, held a one-stroke lead today as a field of 150 swung into the second round of the $12,500 Azalea Open golf tournament at Wilmington, N. C.

Littler fired a six-under-par 66 yesterday over the par 72, 6798-yard Cape Fear Country Club course. But three other players close behind Littler as par took a beating in the first round despite slow greens left soggy by an early morning rain.

ARNOLD PALMER of Latrobe, Pa., former U.S. amateur champion and the top amateur at Wilmington two years ago, fired a 67 to hold the lead until Littler passed him late in the day.

Tied with Palmer were five-time Canadian PGA champion Stan Leonard of Lacute, Que., and

Ronnie Knox on MGM Contract

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—UCLA passing star Ronnie Knox has signed a seven-year movie contract with MGM but will be able to complete his college football career next season, his stepfather, Harvey Knox, said today.

The elder Knox called the contract "a $250,000 deal." The starting salary is $200 weekly, he said.

"Ronnie definitely will play football at UCLA this fall and will finish his college education in theater arts," Knox said. "He will not play pro football, though."

George May Honored

CHICAGO (AP) — George S. May, sponsor of the world's richest golf tournament at his Tam O'Shanter golf course, has been voted the 1955 award by the Golf Writers Association for outstanding contribution to golf. Last year's award was voted to President Eisenhower.

County Planners Pledge to Work with City on Use of Village Name

City Manager R. W. Peterson has received favorable reply from Riverside County Planning Commission in his city council-initiated search for a way to halt real estate operations outside the Village from using the name of Palm Springs in their sales campaigns.

At the request last month by councilman Jerry Nathanson, Peterson wrote to the California Real Estate Commissioner, asking for relief. He was told that the commission has no power as to the use of names, and could only act after a subpoena to aid sales through advertising had been proved.

Peterson then wrote to Tyler Sues, chairman of the county planners, who replied that his

Boy Injured by Truck Set to Return Home

Following a series of surgical and medical treatments in Los Angeles Children's Hospital, Charles Paul Harris, 18-month-old son of Sherman and Arlene Harris, has recovered sufficiently from injuries received when a truck backed over him a week ago to be released next week.

The child was apparently struck by the transmission of an ice truck backing up for delivery at the Steak Ranch a week ago yesterday. The truck was driven by James Patrick Kelly, of Cathedral City. He was not held by investigating officers.

Harris, who is supervisor at the restaurant where the child was playing, said the hospital told him that five ribs were broken and a lung collapsed when his son's stomach pushed his heart into the rib cage.

An emergency operation at the hospital was performed the evening of the accident after diagnosis at Desert Hospital showed a need for special attention. He, his wife, and a nurse from the local hospital accompanied the lad.

Besides Charles, the Harrises have a daughter, Janet, 5½.

Fed-Up Wife Divorces 'Mighty Master' of House

LONDON — Sixty-one-year-old Sybil Jeanne Hewston obtained a divorce from her 66-year-old husband Cecil after alleging:

1. He considered himself a "pocket Hercules" — a fighter whose ancestors for centuries kept the marshes against the Scots.
2. He descended from the Moorish fighters' yet he passed out after drinking one gin sling.
3. He practiced scales on the grand piano at 6 in the morning.
4. Whenever he saw the word "wife" in magazines and newspapers he struck it out and substituted the word "strumpet" or "concubine."

He wore khaki shorts and tied the house keys to his belt "as if to show that he was the master."

North Palm Springs Notes

Sunrise services will be held will be spending more time in at the site of the Community Church of North Palm Springs at 5:45 a.m. Easter.

The ground has been broken and the cement slab laid on the lots which were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Al Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Covey at the corner of Sanborn Ave. and Thum Drive.

On Saturday the following volunteers were on hand to help with the cement work: Guisepp and Philip Trippi, Frank Schlatter, Jess Perez, Howard Stone, Pete Novak, George Colby, Harold Case, Jimmie Goforth, Sam Webb and truck drivers M. Stafford and Pete Ruiz.

Helen Morgan reports that donations are coming in, several checks have been received and many pledges made. This is a very worthwhile project and we feel it will soon be completed. The entire community is invited to attend the Easter sunrise services.

The Bob Shermans of North Palm Springs have recently sold their home in Beverly Hills, and ridge, Oregon.

Music, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by the following: Penny and Nelle Pendergast, Myron and Freda Suley, Dick and Marie Maher, Lei Chronister, Trudy Watkins, Frosty Briggs, Jean McCance, Kay Yager, Hilda Carnahan, Orpha Geier, the host, hostess and guests of honor.

W. C. Black stopped in North Palm Springs Thursday for a visit with his friend, William Jaeger. Black, who spent 16 years with the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power, is now operator of the Hayfield Pumping Station, near Desert Center. Mr. and Mrs. Black and their daughter have established a home at the station.

Mrs. Bessie Smith had as weekend guests her son and daughter-in-law and grandson, "Chip" Smith, from Hollywood.

The Rev. James Doty left Sunday for a stay in Banning, after a three weeks' visit with his brother and sister-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Doty, at the Doty Lodge on Palm Drive.

Weekend guests at the home of Phil and Betty Smith were Mr. and Mrs. Norm Peavey and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krot of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. George West and their son, Lonnie, of Boulevard Gardens, and the Smiths' son-in-law, Stuart Feuer of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Howell of Los Angeles are back at their trailer home in Holmes Park, after a month's vacation on the Colorado River, where they enjoyed boating and fishing.

John and Linda (Goforth) Isaacs and their baby son, John Clayton, left last week to establish a new home in Farmer City, Illinois. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Isaacs, reside there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Grub of North Palm Springs spent last week in Santa Barbara, where they visited, among others, their Alaskan friends of long standing, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Carlson of Ketchikan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Perkins of Huntington Beach are spending two weeks with their son and family, Pete, Eloise, and sons, on Merriman Avenue.

Gordon Ayres, manager of Arthur Murray Studios in Palm Springs and Riverside, and former movie, radio and television personality, will be master of ceremonies Sunday night when the Arthur Murray Studios in Southern California hold their 14th televised Medal Ball starting at 10:30 p. m., over KTLA (Channel 5).

Safeway Reports Record Income for 1955 Year

Robert A. Magowan, board chairman, and Milton L. Selby, president of Safeway Stores, Incorporated in their annual report for 1955, released this week included a comparative breakdown of net earnings of the Company for the last 16 weeks of 1955 and 1954. Magowan and Selby took over leadership of the company following a special stockholders' meeting October 3, 1955.

The report showed that, after dividends on the preferred stock, consolidated net earnings for the last 16 weeks of 1955 were $5,027,205 or $1.44 per share on the average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period compared with net earnings for the same 16-week period in 1954 or $3,203,180 or $0.92 per share.

TOTAL AGGREGATE net sales of Safeway and all subsidiaries during 1955 of $1,932,243,202, the greatest in the company's history were reported to stockholders. This was an increase of $118,726,566 or 6.55 per cent over the previous record set in 1954.

Net profits in 1955, before provision for taxes, were $27,330,427, as compared with $28,830,832 in 1954. After providing for U. S. Federal normal income tax and surtax of $10,490,000, Canadian taxes on income of $2,932,000 and state taxes on income of $286,624, the net profit was $13,621,805 in 1955 as compared with $13,983,771 in 1954.

Consolidated net earnings of the company and all subsidiaries applicable to the common stock, after payment of preferred dividends of $2,272,334, were equal to $3.25 per share on 3,492,129 shares, the average number outstanding during the year. This compares with $3.52 per share on 3,428,295 shares outstanding in 1954.

The report also states the decline in earnings occurred during the first 36 weeks of the year when consolidated net earnings, after dividends on preferred stock, were $6,322,264 or $1.81 per share in 1955 as compared with $8,865,194 or $2.60 per share during the same 36-week period in 1954.

CASH DIVIDENDS for 1955, the 28th consecutive year of common stock dividends, were $2.40 per share of common stock.

"The year 1955 was again an impressive one from the standpoint of the company's construction program," stated the report. "During the year the company completed 104 new retail locations, 89 in the United States and 15 in Canada. An additional 58 retail locations, all of which should be completed during the first half of 1956, were under construction at the year end."

Plans and specifications were either prepared or in the process of preparation for another 74 retail stores. Barring unforeseen delays, substantially all of these locations should also be completed and in operation before the end of 1956. The company owns or holds under option land sites for 275 additional retail stores which are scheduled for construction during 1956, 1957 and 1958."

Unparalleled New Desert Living Plan

STANFORD UNIVERSITY leasehold plan now brought to the desert by the creator and original owner of the Smoke Tree Ranch where the President stayed. Now you can have a small artistic Holiday Home on

HIDDEN SPRINGS RANCH OASIS 1000 Palms, California

Only 12 minutes out of Palm Springs. Live on the wide open desert away from city tensions and yet only 10 miles to pubs, shops, and clubs.

You can have a safe "use of a big lot on a 99 year lease, virtual ownership, record your lease like a deed, AND AN OPTION TO RENEW 99 years more—total 198 years. Same plan as Mr. Doyle used at Smoke Tree Ranch on original 16 homes, same as Irvin's Balboa Bay Shores and Corona Del Mar where homes run $22,500 up to $165,000. Ideal for those who can only week end, don't want a large investment, laborious housekeeping and for retired couples wishing the sunshine economically but among 'their own kind'."

$7 a month only for a lot 75x105, with huge trees, water, electricity, phone, roads, right off Ramon Road. There's nothing comparable to it on the Palm Springs desert, only development of its kind.

$3975 buys a cemen: block Holiday Home, 480 square feet, living room, bath, kitchen, fireplace and carport complete. With one bedroom, 600 square feet, $4475. "Lot can't be beat—just the price of an auto, an investment in health away from fog, smog and city tensions. Controlled and restricted character. Plans must be approved. Assignments approved. You can sell and rent both land and home. Direct TV. Swimming pool, next year. Adults. Trailers, if enclosed with a home, residential colony, not a park.

5 ACRE ESTATE SITES. If you want to buy outright, I have them 50% below the market. Water, utilities, natural gas, horses O.K. Good TV. $5500 and 3 1/2 acre bargain $3250, 2 1/2 acres $2700. Compare them with everything and if you can beat it then I will give it free.

Drive out Ramon Road across the Freeway, Highway 99, then 3 miles to this gorgeous 1500 acre — and little known — residential paradise at the end of Ramon. Hidden Springs Ranch, Phone 611.

OWN THIS WITH PRIDE

WELL LOCATED two bedroom, two bath home on 150'x200' walled lot. Well equipped kitchen includes dishwasher and deep freeze. Large playroom. Tastefully landscaped grounds (I counted 20 citrus trees). Gassed in 20x40 pool and patio. $37,500 completely furnished.

ALL YOU CAN ASK FOR

A NEW MODERN HOUSE — the kitchen has built in range. The two baths are tiled and the three bedrooms have lots of closets. Central heating plus a beautiful fireplace. New Biltmore Estates location. $32,500 unfurnished

THE BEST SMALL HOUSE BUY IN TOWN

WILGAY'S

ALAN DALE, center, well known Hollywood restaurateur, will be in charge of the restaurant now under construction in Cameron Center. Above, he discusses plans with Russell Wade, left, exclusive sales agent, and William Cody, architect, on the site. Completion of the restaurant is set for September 1.

Desert Hot Springs-Palm Springs Daily Bus Service is Begun

Bus service started today between Desert Hot Springs and Palm Springs. Ten round trips daily, the first beginning at 6:50 a.m. and the last at 10 p.m., are being made by a seven-passenger stage operated by the Desert Hot Springs Stage Line, owned by John Jervik of Inglewood.

The stopping and loading terminus in Palm Springs is on Indian Avenue, just south of the Thrifty Drug store. The bus also will make a stop at the Greyhound bus station on Indian Avenue. These will be the only stops in Palm Springs.

In Desert Hot Springs, the bus will stop at any intersection on its route.

The route to be followed in DHS will be as follows:

From Palm and Pierson, the bus will go up Pierson to Ocotillo, north on Ocotillo to Eighth, east on Eighth to Palm Drive, back down Palm Drive to Dillon Road, thence to Palm Springs.

The bus will leave Eighth and Palm at the following hours, and leave Palm and Pierson five minutes later in each case:

6:50, 8:25, 9:30 and 11:10 a.m.; 1, 3:35, 5:05, 6:10, 7:30 and 10 p.m.

It will leave the Indian Avenue terminus in Palm Springs at these hours:

7:50, 8:55, 10:35 a.m.; noon, 2, 4:30, 5:35, 6:50, 8:45 and 11 p.m.

Cameron Center Restaurant Leased to Noted Operator in Hollywood

Alan Dale, one of Southern California's best known restaurateurs, has signed a lease with George E. Cameron Jr., Enterprises to operate the restaurant now being constructed in the $5 million Cameron Center.

Dale, who has been in charge of the Villa Nova on the Sunset Strip in Hollywood since 1933, will use the same name for his operation here. In regard to the original name, Scorpio's, there will be a Scorpio Room.

The lessee of the restaurant is well known in Hollywood, Beverly Hills and Palm Springs. He is a property owner in the Thunderbird area, where he and his wife, Charlotte, and three children will make their home.

Target date for opening of the restaurant is September 1, with a grand opening tentatively scheduled for October 1.

Dale, who is a chef himself, will exercise personal supervision, and his chef in Hollywood will devote half of his time to this operation.

Besides the 24-hour coffee shop, there will be offered the traditional Villa Nova cuisine, which features more than 300 dishes.

Ban on Charity Lobbying Loses

SACRAMENTO — A bill designed to keep charitable tax-exempt organizations from engaging in lobbying or propaganda has been defeated, 20-16, in the senate.

Opponents said the bill might deprive schools, hospitals, chambers of commerce and other semi-public agencies from tax exemptions on gifts or inheritances.

Sen. Richard Richards (D-Los Angeles) called it a "dangerous bill."

Dearth of Loyalty Topics in School Texts Deplored

SACRAMENTO — A Senate investigating committee today blamed "so-called progressive educators" for what it said was a dearth of textbooks in public schools which teach patriotism and loyalty.

In the 14th report of the Senate Investigating Committee on Education, the five-man committee complained that such well-known sayings as "Don't give up the ship" and "Give me liberty or give me death" had all but disappeared from modern history books.

"The old books of loyalty and patriotic service are gone," the committee said. "They have been burned or destroyed, not by patriots, but as the result of the refusal to use them by so-called progressive educators supported by professional groups."

2 Teen Visitors Held in Burglary of Junior High

Police this morning arrested two 15-year-old visitors found walking the streets at 6 o'clock carrying nearly $60, mostly in change, and equipment later ascertained to have been stolen from Nellie Coffman Junior High and the High School gymnasium.

The two youths will be turned over to Juvenile Hall and charged with burglary.

Police said the pair broke into the gym, tore equipment apart looking for money and valuables, but found only a stopwatch.

Then they ransacked the desks of Principal Warren Linville and his secretary, scattering papers on the floor. Searching for money, they pried files open, took a pencil machine from the wall and jimmied it open. Linville said about $57 was missing from his school.

Meanwhile police had a busy time controlling the horde of teenagers who gathered in large groups, dancing to their own drum music.

At least 10 such groups were dispersed by patrols after hotel owners called to say the youngsters would not leave their hotels when asked.

A group of boys in an apartment were discovered gambling at 1:30 a.m. today and refused to leave the premises until police had paid them two visits.

At least half a dozen instances of chair pad thefts at hotel pools have been reported, and three mail boxes have been opened and the mail tampered with.

Yesterday afternoon, B. C. Scheib, driver of a beer and delivery truck, told officers boys had taken beer from his parked truck.

An officer this morning woke a boy sleeping in a car who told him he had broken the window

Texas Tanker Blast Jolts Jittery Town

BAYTOWN, Tex. — An explosion ripped open the side of an oil tanker docked at Baytown Thursday night, injuring only two crewmen but triggering short-lived fears among residents of this port city of a repetition of the 1947 Texas City disaster.

The Baytown explosion came as kerosene was being loaded into a 3,000-barrel compartment of the "ESSO Paterson," a 10,000-ton vessel operated by Humble Oil and Refining Co. and moored to a Humble dock. Cause has not been determined.

Two seamen were blown into the water and two others hurt.

Early today the firm issued a statement saying, "We're back in business. The crew has returned to the ship."

The dock area is only a short distance from a 3,000-acre "tank farm" on which vast quantities of gasoline and other inflammable fuels are stored.

The blast was felt in Galveston, Tex., more than 30 miles away.

and entered the car to sleep. The youth was arrested and scheduled for Juvenile Hall. His home was less than half a mile from the car.

Egg Hunt Proves to be Hooch Hunt

ATLANTA, Ga. — Children at the H. Rutherford Butler Negro Elementary School went on an Easter egg hunt Thursday but police wouldn't let them keep one of the finds—eight and a half gallons of moonshine whiskey.

Five-Inch Snow from the West Hits New England

By UNITED PRESS

A big late March storm, with dust storms and near blizzards already on its record, brought almost half a foot of snow to New England today.

The storm moved in slowly from the West and settled over the nation's Northeast, already a favorite target for spring snows.

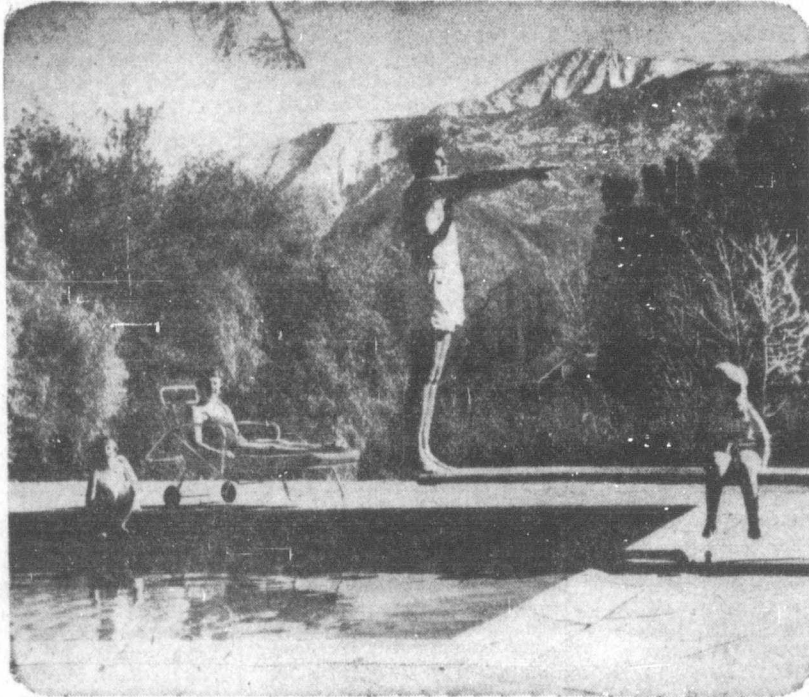

Snow depths averaged one to five inches in southern New England. Five-inch falls were measured at both Hartford, Conn., and Worcester, Mass., bringing the cities' snow depths to 11 and 18 inches, respectively.

To the south there was a road-slicking mixture of sleet, rain, and snow from northeastern Pennsylvania to Long Island, N.Y. Heavy rains battered the southland measuring 1.29 inches at Macon, Ga., and 1.21 at Columbia, S.C.

Back in the nation's midsection, the northern Midwest dug out of its worst snowstorm of the season and dust settled over a vast area.

BANNING OFFERS CONTRAST! — yes, an amazing contrast to metropolitan congestion, turmoil and smog. Here is a delightful, unspoiled community nestling between Southern California's two highest peaks. Its quaint village environment, lovely homes, beautiful tree-shaded streets and mild year round climate present a rare combination. The setting is superb. Because it is the gateway to the desert, main entrance to Idyllwild, and close to other varied mountain resorts and scenic spots, a dull moment is simply unknown to visitors or permanent residents. Among Banning's unusual attractions are the colorful outdoor programs presented during the cool summer evenings in the picturesque Playhouse Bowl in beautiful Repplier Park.
